PASTOR'S REFLECTIONS

by Rev. Arch Wallace

The three aims of TBC in seeking to live its Mission of being a place where Christ's disciples can worship, study and serve include (1) Developing Disciples of Christ, (2) Extending Radical Hospitality and (3) Growing Young Together. This Sunday, we will get to see one of those three prongs in action as Worship will be led by our youth. They have worked hard to be ready for the challenge. They have studied and written and practiced. They have a message for us that they believe in God and are already following God's plan for them.

We know from Scripture that Christ called disciples to follow him and as the end of his life here came near, he trained at least twelve to send to the ends of the earth to proclaim the Good News we call the Gospel. Christ passed the torch with the light from above that he brought to them with instructions to take the light to the world and when it was time, to pass the torch to the next generation. The torch is currently in our hands. We have the responsibility to preserve and pass on the Good News. Sunday, you will get to see who comes next, who will take the torch from us, who will carry it for a while, until they too must pass it on. Come and celebrate with our youth this passing of the torch and see what miracles the Holy Spirit is still working among us.
